READ IT.—To be sick is no longer a misfortune, but a fault. Has any man a headache? Peters' Cordial Lozenges will cure him in a few minutes. Is any one troubled with a hacking cough, which may end in consumption? In Peters' Cough Lozenges he may find almost immediate relief. Worms kill many children. They can neither kill nor hurt a child who is physicked with Peters' Worm Lozenges. Hence we may well conclude as we began, that to be sick is no longer a misfortune, but a fault. We say to all, go at once and procure some of these famous Lozenges, at

CONCERT BY MR. HEWITT'S JUVENILE CLASS.

"If music's spell can smooth the brow of care,
Then why not sing the joyful lay?
Youth is the time of sunshine and of smiles,
Then shall we let it pass away?"
Hewitt's Pupils.

Verily, my little singing birds, I say nay. Make the most and the best of it; we like music, and the music of song above all other music, and your grateful, innocent, and reviving pastoral music is just in season—as much so as M'Grath's oysters; for—

"The months we used to read of
Have come to us again,
With their sunniness, and cloudiness,
And rare delights of rain."

And you have required, Mr. Editor, the undersigned to say a word in behalf of the "little ones," and of their concert last Wednesday evening, which is to be repeated to-night. If a resolution had been offered to the crowded auditory at the last exhibition, that the performances of the little girls, as well as the little girls themselves, were very charming, we are quite certain it would have passed like any proposition of O'Connell to the Irish Repealers—that is to say, it would have been adopted by acclamation. The undersigned cheerfully assents to the proposition. The exhibition, to him, was a rational and gratifying entertainment—refreshing and delightful withal.

All such exhibitions, calculated to improve the taste, the mind, and the heart of that class of our fellow-citizens, designated by our frontier preachers "the rising generation," meet with our cordial concurrence and co-operation. And we have an ulterior motive in this word of commendation of Mr. Hewitt and his pupils—no doubt the reader has suspected it. It is this—a motive to encourage the efforts of a professor (and all professors) engaged in preparing the rising youth of our country for the intellectual and refined intercourse of civilized society—a motive to do something for the common good—a motive to appeal to our identity as a citizen by our identity of interest with the dearest social considerations of our fellow citizens. That's all.

We love order, and music, and old ladies, and little girls; and we like to see the dear old ladies enjoying their social speculations over a cup of Young Hyson, and the little girls, all and drawn up like a May-day body-guard around their tutor, singing away like robins in a cherry tree. We doubt not but that the concert to-night will be encouraged by the presence, in compliment to the "little ones" of many young ladies and gentlemen who are fond of listening to good music and of looking at each other. GOOD AND CHEAP CLOTHING.

"Attired in spotless white,"

P. W. BROWNING, Merchant Tailor, Pennsylvania Avenue, north side, between 3d and 4th streets, not far from the railroad depot, returns his sincere thanks to the members of the present Congress, and the public generally, for their liberal patronage extended toward him the past winter, and respectfully solicits a continuance of the same. He has just returned from New York with a choice stock of spring and summer goods, such as English, French, and American cloth; cassimeres and vestings; plaid and striped cassimeres, a new and beautiful article; also, plaid tweeds for spring frock coats.
He has visited the principal merchant tailoring establishments in New York, and can say that his stock will compare with theirs for style, beauty, quality, and cheapness. In short, his goods were purchased for cash in the best market in the United States, with great care, and he presumes to say, with judgment, and will be sold for cash, as he cannot kick the credit system with so small profits as he offers to sell his goods; and, with such a system of doing business as the above, he defies any establishment in the U. States to sell clothes cheaper than he will (notwithstanding some merchants in this city, not even judges of such goods as merchant tailors use) propose to sell clothing from twenty-five to thirty per cent. cheaper than it can be bought of the merchant tailor. I say it is false, and I can prove it; and any person that believes it is completely humbugged and laughed at. All I ask is, that you will honor me with a call before you purchase your spring clothing, and I will prove to you all I say. Call, if you please, and, whether you buy or not, I will take great pleasure in showing you my goods.
A general assortment of fancy articles, umbrellas, stockings, gloves, handkerchiefs, shirts, hosiery, &c.
A large stock of fashionable clothing of my own manufacture, to suit the circumstances of the poor man, as well as the rich, fine, medium, and common, for cash only. mar 26—3law

THE TRUTH SOMETIMES NOT FOUND OUT UNTIL TOO LATE.

SUCH is often the case in regard to persons taking medicine. They are induced by plausible reasoning, false representation and doctrines, to employ medicines that, so far from being adapted to their disease or sickness, absolutely increase the symptoms, destroy the constitution, rack the whole system, and bring on a gradual decline, terminating in death; previous to the fatal termination, however, (but unfortunately too late,) the truth is found out that the pills, mixtures, &c. they have been taking were composed of the most powerful and dangerous ingredients, prepared too by persons knowing nothing of disease or the nature of the medicines they recommended, depending altogether upon the "general doctrine of such impostors," that their medicines will "kill or cure." Be advised, then, if you find it necessary to take some medicine for purifying the blood and cleansing the bowels, to take nothing but Dr. Leidy's justly and deservedly celebrated SARSAPARILLA BLOOD PILLS, the only pills containing Sarsaparilla in their composition—the safest and best as well as the most effectual that can be taken.
Old and young, at all times, without regard to weather, may take them without fear of taking cold, and without restraint from occupation or usual course of living. Upwards of 1,000 certificates have been published, various times, of their efficacy. More than 100,000 boxes have been sold in Philadelphia in twelve months. These facts go to prove their value, or so many never would be sold in so short a time, in a place where they are manufactured; this, however, arises in part from the fact that the manufacturer of them (Dr. Leidy) is well known at home as a regular physician and apothecary, knowing the true nature of diseases and of the medicines he recommends, attested by the most celebrated physicians, among whom are Dr. Nathaniel Chapman, Dr. Wm. Gibson, Dr. W. E. Horner, Dr. Samuel Jackson, Dr. Robert Hare, Dr. P. S. Physic, Dr. T. C. James, Dr. W. P. Dewees, Dr. J. Redman Cox, Rev. W. H. Delancy, Robert Adrian, L.L.D., &c. &c.
Orders for Dr. Leidy's BLOOD PILLS are daily received from the North, South, East, and West, and the most flattering accounts, from every direction, of their unparalleled success. A single box (25 cents) may save as many dollars, if taken in time, instead of the dangerous medicines now forced on the public, and by taking which persons so often find it necessary at last to take Dr. Leidy's Blood Pills, to counteract their injurious consequences.
They are prepared only, and sold Wholesale and Retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, No. 191, North Second street, below Vine street, Philadelphia.
